

Feurst/Brennan

At a quiet, impressive wedding ceremony, solemnized Saturday morning, November 7, at 10 o'clock in St. Mathias Church, Hampton, Miss Belle Feurst, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feurst, became the bride of John Brennan of Lakeville. Father Rowan officiated at the exchanging of the vows and the nuptial mass following. The children's choir sang, accompanied by Sister Clarissa Marie.

Miss Leona Smithberger of Farmington, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and John Brennan, Jr., nephew of the groom, was best man. Serving ushers were Raymond Nicolai, cousin of the bride, and Clark Kohls, a nephew of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Herbert Nicolai, wore an attractive street-length light blue, two piece suit, with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. She carried the first communion prayer book which had belonged to her aunt, the late Miss Bella Nicolai, whom she had so lovingly cared for the past 10 years.

Miss Smithberger wore a street-length dress of a lighter shade of blue, with brown accessories, and she carried white and yellow mums.

The groom and other members of his party, were attired in dark business suits, with white carnation boutonnieres.

Following the church service, Mrs. Abbie Nicolai, the bride's aunt, was hostess at a bridal party and their close immediate relatives.

Mr. Brennan and bride then left on a wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in Farmington.
