

THE KOHLS MARRIAGE

Mame Brennan was Irish Catholic and she married Charles Kohls who was German Lutheran. Neither one ever converted, but they continued to live in harmony (most of the time). Joe Brennan was their best man and Charlie's sister was maid of honor when they married 8 January 1919. They took a train trip to California for their honeymoon and was there ever a write-up in the paper!